WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1866.

In our local columns will be found a full report of the proceedings last evening upon the occasion of the opening of the Union Headquarters at City Hall. The meeting was one of the largest ever held in this city, and augurs well for the future. Let the good work go on. The entire country is looking to Pennsylvania. Her voice given in the coming election will exercise a potent influence upon the politics of the nation. It is as essential now as it was during the rebellion, that every loyal man should know his duty, and perform it without fear or favor.

THE GARBLED DISPATCH.

Very soon after the atrocious massacre of the members of the Convention and a large number of unarmed and unresisting negroes at New Orleans, a dispatch, or what purported to be such, from General SHERIDAN to General GRANT, was published in the New York Times, and thence telegraphed all over the country. We print that garbled dispatch side by side with the true copy, as taken from the official copy of the correspondence recently published. Will the reader please compare the two carefully. The object of the mutilation will be at once apparent. In the true dispatch the conduct of Mayor MUNROE and his Thugs is set forth with great force, and is denounced as "murder." In the garbled dispatch every possible effort is made to throw the blame upon the victims, and leave the impression upon the mind of the reader that the affair was an ordinary riot, in which some two hundred persons were killed and wounded. The dispatch was so tampered with as to make it, to all intents and purposes, a lie—a lie, the object of which was to screen the guilty and throw the blame upon the innocent. Note particularly the effect of the erasure of the word "thus" at the beginning of the first sentence after the Italics.

Who did this thing? It was not General GRANT, as all will say with one voice. Well, then, it lies between ANDREW JOHNSON and HENRY J. RAYMOND, the editor of the Times and the leader and master spirit of the late Philadelphia Convention:

THE GARBLED DISPATCH.	THE TRUE DISPATCH.
The Times, August 3. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1—1:30 p. m. Gen. U. S. Grant, Washington, D. C.: You are doubtless aware of the serious riot which occurred in this city on the 30th. A political body styling itself the Convention of 1864, met on the 30th, for, as is alleged, the purpose of remodelling the present Constitution of the State. The leaders were political agitators and revolutionary men, and the action of the Convention was liable to produce breaches of the public peace. I had made up my mind to arrest the head men if the proceedings of the Convention were calculated to disturb the tranquility of the Department, but I had no cause for action until they committed the overt act. About 40 Whites and Blacks were killed, and about 160 wounded. Everything is now quiet, but I deem it best to maintain a military supremacy in the city for a few days, until the affair is fully investigated. I believe the sentiment of the general community is great regret at this unnecessary cruelty, and that the police could have made any arrest they saw fit without sacrificing lives. P. H. SHERIDAN, Maj. Gen. Comd'ng.	From the Correspondence. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1. U. S. GRANT—General: You are doubtless aware of the serious riot which occurred in this city on the 30th. A political body styling itself the Convention of 1864, met on the 30th, for, as it is alleged, the purpose of remodeling the present Constitution of the State. The leaders were political agitators and revolutionary men, and the action of the Convention was liable to produce breaches of the public peace. I had made up my mind to arrest the head men, if the proceedings of the Convention were calculated to disturb the tranquility of the Department, but I had no cause for action until they committed the overt act. In the meantime, official duty called me to Texas, and the Mayor of the city, during my absence, suppressed the Convention by the use of their police force, and in so doing attacked the members of the Convention and a party of two hundred negroes, and with fire-arms, clubs and knives, in a manner so unnecessary and atrocious as to compel me to say that it was murder. About 40 Whites and Blacks were thus killed, and about 160 wounded. Everything is now quiet, but I deem it best to maintain a military supremacy in the city for a few days, until the affair is fully investigated. I believe the sentiment of the general community is great regret at this unnecessary cruelty, and that the police could have made any arrest they saw fit without sacrificing lives. P. H. SHERIDAN, Maj. Gen. Comd'ng.

The Erie Convention.

We acknowledge the following circular:

ERIE, PA., Aug. 24, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The agreeable duty devolves upon us of announcing to you, that the true Union and patriotic citizens of Western Pennsylvania and New York and Eastern Ohio will hold a "Grand Mass Convention" in the city of Erie on the 12th of September, 1866, at which Governors Curtin and Geary have announced their intention of being present.

Treason never sleeps, but day and night works on to chaos and destruction. When treason binds and silences its greatest chiefs lest truth defeat its cunning, then must Freedom marshal her array, post her sentries and send her ensigns forward. The Sons of Erie fling their banner to the breeze, and beg that you will join them in the great demonstration on the 12th.

Your obedient servants,
James Sill, E. E. Stuerznickle, G. W. Colton, M. R. Barr, G. F. Brevillier, D. B. M'Creary, A. R. Kellogg, J. R. Graham, O. E. Crouch.
Committee of Arrangements.

IF Gen. McClellan, who really did fight to suppress the rebellion, failed by many thousands to carry Pennsylvania, how is it possible for Hiester Clymer to carry it, whose services were all on the side of the rebellion?

Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery.
The trustees and faculty of the above Medical College have issued "scholarships" at seventy-five dollars each, which entitles the holders to attend lectures until graduation or as many sessions as he wishes.

This renders a medical education cheaper than ever proposed by any University or College in this country or Europe, possessing the same extensive facilities.

There are sixteen Professors and every branch of Medicine and Surgery is thoroughly taught.

The student holding a "scholarship" can enter the college at any time during the Lectures, attend as long as he wishes, and re-enter the Institution as frequently as desired.

Persons wishing to obtain scholarships can apply to L. Oldshue, M. D., Professor of Urino Pathology in the above-mentioned College. His office and residence is No. 137 Grant street, Pittsburgh Pa.

The Reasons Why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Should Have a Place in Every Home.
Because by invigorating the constitution and the frame they avert sickness.

Because (especially) their use prevents the atmospheric poison which produces epidemics from taking effect upon the system.

Because they cure indigestion, and impart unwonted vigor to the stomach.

Because they are the best appetizing medicine at present known.

Because they are the only preparation upon which persons of a bilious habit can safely rely to keep the liver in good order.

Because they tone and regulate the bowels, and invariably relieve them when constipated, without causing undue relaxation.

Because they strengthen the nerves, clear the brain, and cheer the animal spirits.

Because in case of an attack of spasms or bilious colic they are the best thing that can be administered on the instant.

Because they combine the three properties of a tonic, an alterative and a nervine in their utmost purity and perfection.

Because they are a specific against Ague and Fever and all intermittents, and with all their potency as a preservative and a remedy, are as harmless as water from the mountain spring!

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Further Concerning the Massacre—Colored Man's Paper Revived—The Cholera.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 28.—It has been charged that a meeting was held in the Mayor's parlor on the Saturday evening before the riots, whereat Major General F. J. Herron was present, and that the latter had testified before the Military Commission that an attack upon the Convention was planned at this meeting, and that he left the assemblage before the proceedings terminated. To the Times, which denied its belief that he could so testify, as it was not true, General Herron said that the statement is false, coming from where it may. Some forty merchants and professional men met at that meeting, and the result of their conclusions was to advise the white people through a proclamation to keep away from the Convention and avoid any tendency to an outbreak. The Lieutenant Governor also invited the newspaper offices to ask the papers to urge abstainance from irritating language and conduct, which they did.

The Tribune, published by a colored man, was revived to-day.

There were only fourteen deaths from cholera yesterday.

From Fort Leavenworth—Indians on the War Path—Stanton to be Forced out of the Cabinet—Murder by a Deputy Sheriff—Fatal Railroad Accident.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The Tribune's special from Leavenworth, says: Information has been received that over eight hundred Indians are at the forks of the Solomon on the war path. They have driven all the settlers back, and scalped seven whites.

A World special says: The President has come to an irrevocable decision that Mr. Stanton must leave the Cabinet.

Asa Dickson, a well known oysterman, was yesterday shot by Deputy Sheriff Simonson, while fishing for oysters in Newark Bay contrary to law. The Sheriff says the shooting, which took place while Dixon was resisting arrest, was accidental.

Nicholas Dehart, conductor on the New Jersey Transportation Road, was killed, and a brakesman and fourteen laborers were more or less injured yesterday by a dirt train being thrown from the track.

The President's Reception at New York—Contemplated Change of Programme—Mayor Hoffman Protests.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The arrangements for the reception of the President to-morrow have been taken in charge by a committee of citizens.

General Sanford has issued a military order changing the proposed programme from a public reception at the City Hall to a military and comparatively private one at Delmonico's.

Mayor Hoffman has protested against this programme being carried out, as it will not allow citizens a fair opportunity of seeing the President.

It appears, however, that the citizen's Committee have determined that there shall be no review in the City Hall Park. The reception at the City Hall will consist merely of those specially invited, including the foreign consuls and heads of Departments. There will be no public reception at the Hall, though possibly there may be at the Fifth avenue hotel in the evening.

Rumored Resignation of Gen. Baird—Secretary Stanton.

PHILADELPHIA, August 28.—A dispatch from Washington says: General Baird has asked to be relieved of his command at New Orleans. His request will probably be granted.

A Johnson paper this morning opens a new battery on Secretary Stanton, by copying a bitter attack upon him from the Buffalo Commercial. There are those who predict that this war of the Republican is a forerunner of the Secretary's resignition or removal, but knowing ones declare that Mr. Stanton has yet a long lease of official life in him.

To be Deprived of Their Rations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 28.—The letter from General Howard, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau to the Secretary of War, recommending the cessation of rations except to Hospitals, after October first, is published. The reasons he gives, are, that charges are made that the freedmen are fed in idleness; that the statements made by Gen's Steadman and Fullerton imply that they continue their idleness in expectation of rations, and that the crops are sufficiently matured to prevent starvation.

Conservative Congressional Nomination—Instructions to the Indian Commissioners.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28.—The Conservative Second Congressional District nominated Col. Broadhead for Congress.

The Indian Agents in Kansas have been instructed not to allow any Indians under their charge to go on the expedition against the wild Indians of the Plains. Should these latter Indians invade or attack the border settlements, troops will be immediately sent after them.

Collision on the Atlantic and Great Western Railway.

MEADVILLE, PA., August 28.—The Corry accommodation train on the Atlantic and Great Western Railway, while standing at Panama last night, was run into by an extra train following, smashing a passenger car. None of the passengers were seriously injured. James Clancey, conductor, and a newsboy were killed. The engineer, Peter Murphy, was badly hurt, and a brakesman had his leg broken.

Man Killed—The Cholera.

NEW YORK, August 28.—Dr. Frank Harbrook, of Nyack, Rockland county, was run over and killed on the Northern Railroad of New Jersey, last night.

Only two cases of cholera were reported in the city to-day. The official report shows that there were fourteen deaths from cholera in the city last week. In Brooklyn six cases were reported to-day, three of which were fatal.

Philadelphia Stock Board and the President.

PHILADELPHIA, August 28.—At the meeting of the Stock Board to-day, C. P. Bayard moved to adjourn out of respect for the President. The motion was not agreed to.

Public Printer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—The Commission of Cornelius Wendell as Superintendent of Public Printing was issued to-day.

LONDON, August 28.—Noon.—John Bright delivered a speech last night, at Birmingham, before a mass meeting of the people favorable to the Reform movement, which exceeded all his former eloquent efforts and created the most enthusiastic excitement among the immense audience. The meeting was the largest held of late years, and the interest manifested by the people exceeded that of any former demonstration in favor of Reform since 1832.

MOSCOW, August 27.—At the banquet given to the American embassy, the speech of Mr. Fox, in response to a toast, was eminently laudatory of the Government of the Czar and of the system adopted by him, which had bound his subjects so closely to his interests.

LONDON, August 28.—The following dispatches have been received:

FLORENCE, ITALY, August 28—P. M.—Mazzini has refused to accept the amnesty granted by Victor Emanuel, and declines to be a subject of the King on any terms, preferring exile to such a position.

The immense army which Italy called into the field to reclaim Venetia from Austrian dominion, is being rapidly disbanded.

Garibaldi's volunteer force is disarmed, and the regular army is fast being reduced to a peace footing.

AUSTRIA.—VIENNA, August 28—P. M.—The Austrian Government has determined to issue bonds to the amount of one hundred and forty millions of florins, to meet the extraordinary expense of the late war, including the twenty millions of thalers stipulated to be paid to Prussia by the treaty of peace.

SPAIN.—MADRID, August 28—P. M.—Fears are beginning to be entertained here as to the destiny of Cuba. The Politica, in an article published to-day, argues that the impending collapse of the Mexican Empire will compromise Spain's possession of the island of Cuba.

SOUTHERN LOYALISTS' CONVENTION.

Reception of Southern Delegates—General Sickles Appointed Marshall of the Procession.

PHILADELPHIA, August 28.—The Committee appointed by the Union League, have adopted the following order of proceedings for the reception of the delegates to the Loyal Convention. The Southern delegates are invited to meet at ten o'clock on Monday morning, at Independence Square, where they will be met by delegations from other States, the Boys in Blue, and the Republican Invincibles, from this and other States, and escorted to the Union League Rooms, where they will be formally welcomed by Charles Gibbons.

After this the Southern delegates will march to the National Hall, which has been fitted up for their accommodation, during the session of the Convention. Citizens are providing for the accommodation of the delegates at their own houses.

Union meetings are to be held every evening during the session of the Convention in front of the League House.

General Horatio G. Sickles has been appointed Marshal of the procession.

Arrest of Regulators in Georgia—Deaths from Cholera.

SAVANNAH, GA., August 28.—Several men calling themselves Regulators, charged with hanging freedmen in Liberty county, have been arrested and brought to the city. Mayor Anderson assisted the military in making the arrests.

There have been seventeen deaths from cholera during the past week—four whites and thirteen blacks.

Vermont Delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

MONTPELIER, VT., August 28.—The Union State Central Committee have chosen district delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, also the following delegates at large: Gov. Dillingham, Luke P. Poland, George F. Edmunds, Fred. E. Woodbridge, J. S Morrill, Portius Baxter, Lieut. Gov. Gardner, John R. Page, J. Gregory Smith, C. W. Willard and E. P. Walton.

Maine Delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

AUGUSTA, ME., Aug. 28.—The Union State Convention have designated the following delegates at large to represent the State of Maine at the Philadelphia Convention of Southern representatives. MEMPHIS, August 28.—The cholera is increasing here, though, as yet, it has not assumed an epidemic form. Thirteen cases are reported to-day, seven of which proved fatal.

The weather is temperate and clear.

THE PRESIDENRIAL EXCURSION.

General Grant and Admiral Farragut—Particular Objects of Observation—Arrival of the Party in Philadelphia—Reception Speech and Reply of the President—The President's Speech at the Continental Hotel.

BALTIMORE, August 28.—Arriving at Baltimore the excursionists were met by a Committee of forty citizens, with the Mayor as their Chairman, and escorted in open carriages to the President street depot, to start for Philadelphia. Large crowds were gathered both at the railroad stations in Baltimore and on the line of the procession, to get a view of the excursionists, who were greeted by the waving of hats and handkerchiefs, with occasional cheers. General Grant and Admiral Farragut, were particularly the objects of observation and received enthusiastic applause. Along the line of the procession flags were generally displayed. The President's train left here at 10:20 A. M.

PERRYMANSVILLE, MD, August 28.—A delegation from Delaware, consisting of thirty-six members, came on board to escort the President and party through that State. Here, as at Havre de Grace, the excursion party were received with huzzas and crowds gathered at the sides of the car to catch a glimpse of the distinguished excursionists.

HAVRE DE GRACE, MD., August 28.—11:40 A. M.—A large number of persons approached the car in which the President was a passenger, and greeted him with repeated hurrahs. When he appeared on the platform and bowed his thanks a number hastened forward to shake hands with him.

WILMINGTON, DEL., August 28.—A gentleman entered the car and said to the President: The boys in town would like to see you. This was followed by cries of go to the rear platform. The President, in company with Marshal Gooding, then proceeded there, and having bowed to the enthusiastic thousands, three hearty cheers went up. The surging multitudes pressed toward the rear, struggling through the dense mass to shake hands with the President.

Marshal Gooding introduced General Grant, and afterwards Admiral Farragut to the crowd. They were heartily cheered and greeted, and the crowd impatiently rushed forward to shake their hands. The train, after proceeding a few hundred yards from the city, again stopped, where the crowd gathered and greeted the distinguished party with cheers.

Mr. William S. McCauley, when the train arrived at the line dividing the State, took leave of the President on behalf of the Delaware delegation.

PHILADELPHIA, August 28.—The President's train arrived at 2:13 this afternoon. He was received by the Committee of Merchants and military officers. Col. James Page addressed the President, tendering him the warmest hospitalities of the citizens of Philadelphia irrespective of party, and professional men of all kinds, who recognized him as Chief Magistrate of the republic, the chosen protector of their rights and liberties. The people of Philadelphia heartily congratulated him on the close of the unfortunate rebellion; that peace had returned, and brother was no longer engaged in war against brother; that all the States were restored to the Union and Constitution, and that the Union was one and inseperable. They believed, he said, that you, through the Divine blessing, will bring back peace, and that soon all good citizens will throw aside partizan considerations for the nation's welfare.

Wishing you a pleasant enjoyment of the mission you are now performing, and a safe return, we tender you a hearty welcome, believing that it will be as acceptable in its informality as if it came more properly from our municipal authorities.

The President replied as follows: Permit me in response to what you have just said, to tender you my sincere thanks and the thanks of those who accompany me, for this cordial welcome. I hope you believe me when I say I know how to appreciate this welcome, made by the citizens of Philadelphia. You have uttered certain sentiments and wishes as to myself. I respond to them most cordially, and I believe they are shared by those who are with me on the present occasion. I trust peace has come, not only peace, but permanent peace, and that in future we shall learn war no more. Peace should be peculiarly adapted to this nation and to the feelings of the great mass of the people of Philadelphia. We have had war enough. Let there be peace.

In allusion to what you have said about the Constitution and my past conduct, I will merely say that every effort and all my influence, either as a Chief Magistrate or as a private citizen, shall be exerted to bring about peace and restore a distracted and divided country."

The speech was heartily applauded. General Grant was also loudly cheered.

The President and suite were then escorted to barouches waiting inside of the depot by the First City Troop, which acted as a bodyguard. The military were then formed in line under the command of Major General Meade, and were followed by the civic societies, composed of the National Johnson Club and other clubs, merchants, firemen, Government employees, and a calvacade of citizens bringing up the rear. The whole procession proceeded to the Continental Hotel.

The President, with Secretary Seward on his left, and General Grant on his right, appeared on the portico fronting Chestnut street. Secretary Welles, Postmaster General Randall, Admiral Farragut, and others of the excursion party, together with General Meade and staff, were also in the immediate vicinity. The object was to witness the passage in review of the military and civil procession. The mass of human beings in the street was immense, and many were the cheers given by the moving line for the President, General Grant and Admiral Farragut, the President nearly all the time waving his hat and bowing to the crowd in response to the compliments bestowed upon him. The President made several attempts to speak.

"Fellow-citizens," he said, "be calm for one moment." (Here were cries from below of "Order.") The crowd perceiving that the President was about to address them, surged to and fro, and moved closer, if possible, to the hotel. The President again invited them to give him their attention for only a few moments. Finally, comparative quiet having been secured, he said: "Fellow-citizens—In visiting Philadelphia on the present occasion, it was not for the purpose of making a speech, but I was on my way, in company with the distinguished gentlemen, to the great city of the West—Chicago—to witness and participate in the laying of the chief corner stone of the monument to be erected in memory of a distinguished statesman. We have taken Philadelphia on our route, and in being here to-day I must be permitted to tender the citizens of Philadelphia, on the present occasion and under the peculiar circumstances, my heartfelt and sincere thanks for this public demonstration. I trust the day is far distant when one part of our country shall be arrayed in battle against the other. I trust the day is far distant when brother shall be set against brother, and in the name of God shall lift his hand against his throat. I trust that the day is far distant when the land we love shall be again drenched with a brother's blood. (Cries of "Good, good") The baleful planet of fire and blood has disappeared, and the benignant star of peace has taken its place and under its influence I trust the country will return to affection, peace and harmony, and that reconciliation will again be brought about and we will be enabled to stand together as one people and one Union (Cheers.) So far as regards the part I have taken in political affairs, I have already said I did not intend to make a speech. My public acts and messages are already before the country, and it is from them you are to judge. (Voices, that's a fact.) (You are right.) (Go ahead.) (We are with you.) Believing, as I do, that the policy I have pursued has been calculated to advance and promote the best interests of the country, God being my helper, I intend to stand by it, and with your help, and God's will, this Union shall be restored. (Great applause.) Then let us stand together; let us approach a common platform; let us forget we have been divided into parties, and forget too, that we must obey the behests of party instead of the command of the country. Let your country be saved, let the interests of the great masses of the people be preserved, and let parties sink into insignificance. If a party must be maintained, let it be based on the great principles of the Constitution. Yes, the Constitution of my country, is the strongest league which can be formed, [Renewed and great applause,] and when you talk about leagues [Laughter,] who is it that has entered into a covenant and formed a league above the Constitution. [Applause.] Such a one has entered into a combination against his country, and we should look to it. Let each man belong to the great national league, and let the constitution of the United States be the constitution of this league. For myself, I want no better constitutional league than that formed by Washington and his compeers. (Applause.) It was good enough for them, and it is good enough for you and me. (Applause, and cries of "that's a fact," and "you are right.") Now, as a band of brothers loving our country and determined to support the national constitution, let all men stand around the common altar of our country, and swear that all shall perish and fall in the dust, rather than the union of these States shall not be maintained. (Applause.) From my youth up to the present time it has always been my creed on all great emergencies to rely on the intelligence, patriotism and integrity of the great mass of the American people, and I so stand to-day. (Renewed applause.) The Constitution of the country is in your hands, and I feel confident that you will at the proper time, and at the ballot-box, give such expression as will maintain it; so that the country will stand redeemed and regenerated. (Applause.) As I entered your city I saw on a mechanical establishment the words, "Welcome to the President." I knew it was the emanation of laboring men, (Cheers.) who knew of my confidence in them; and if you, the people, are all right, as is evinced here to-day that you are, (a voice, "all right,") you can bring the class of men who call themselves politicians, to terms, without much effort on your part. (Cries of "That's a fact.")

We have heard much about emancipation. Who has tried more than I have to establish that great principal; but are you quite sure that a large portion of Pennsylvanians are not having the tyrants rod held over them? Who is it that is holding that rod over you? There is much talk about men being put out of office, the clamor is that somebody is turned out and somebody put in. The reason for this is, they desire to perpetuate themselves in power and say to you, the people, who fought the battles, and exposed yourselves to dangers while they remained safe at home, that they must not be turned out and nobody else appointed to office. (Applause.) Is that good old doctrine of rotation in office forgotten? Are not other persons than those who are now in office to participate in the conduct of the government, and are they to have the power, and attempt to exercise it as unrelentingly as tyrants themselves? I say then to you, Come up to the work, and the tyrant's rod can be bent and broken. I repeat that the government is in your hands, and I have always been, and am still willing to trust it to you.

Fellow-citizens, I did not intend to say as much as I have done. There are other gentlemen here who will be compelled to make some remarks. I will therefore conclude by tendering my sincere and heartfelt thanks for this spontaneous manifestation of regard and respect, for one who had been laboring during his whole, and he might say, eventful life, to promote and advance the interests of the great masses of the people. I thank you, gentlemen, and in parting with you I leave the Government in your hands, where I know it will be safe. Repeated cheers were given at the conclusion of this speech, when the President and the distinguished party retired from the balcony. The crowd lingered for some time about the hotel and then retired.

The President was serenaded to-night by the Liberty Cornet Band, under the auspices of the National Union, Keystone and Tailors' Protective Union. Immense crowds congregated in front of the Continental. The President appeared on the balcony simply, he said, to return thanks for the respect and regard thus paid to him. He would, if the occasion justified it, make some remarks upon the questions which divided the public mind. He was informed that there were in the assemblage the journeymen Tailor's Protective Union. He did not feel indifferent to this compliment, for under our form of government it is worth that makes the man, and the want of it the felon. The mechanical interests with agricultural, constitute the basis on which the prosperity of the country rests.

Admiral Farragut appeared merely to acknowledge the compliment of his being called out, but excused himself from making a speech.

The German Maennerchor Vocal Society subsequently serenaded the President.

The police arrangements during the proceedings to-day reflect great credit upon Chiefs Ruggles, Franklin and Clark, and their assistants.

The Pittsburgh Convention—Soldiers and Sailors'—Resident Committee Appointed.

WASHINGTON, August 28.—At a meeting of the National Executive Committee of the Sailors and Soldiers Union, held this evening, the following were appointed a Committee, resident at Pittsburgh, Pa., with power to add to their number viz: Major General J. S. Negley, Major General A. L. Pearson, Brigadier General Charles Barnes, Brigadier General F. H. Collier, Colonel Thomas M. Bayne, Colonel J. D. Copeland, Captain Samuel Kilgore, Sergt. J. H. Gray. They will make all necessary arrangements at that place for the Soldiers and Sailors National Convention, to be held in that city, September 25th.

A Sub-Executive Committee was also appointed, consisting of Capt. A. J. Bennett, chairman; Maj. Wm. S. Morse, Maj. H. A. Hall, W. A. Short, Ashbel Ingersol, W. C. Carter, Capt. J. F. Smith and Capt. Wm. Hunt, to carry out the details and take charge of the financial matters pertaining to said Convention. Headquarters have been established at the office of Col. Bromhall, 234 Pennsylvania avenue, where all officers, soldiers and sailors, who endorse the call, can affix their signatures.

The President's Visit—Gen Sickles and the Cleveland Convention.

NEW YORK, August 28.—In consequence of the visit of President Johnson to this city to-morrow, the Custom House, Sub-Treasury and gold room will be closed at 1 o'clock. There will be no board of brokers. Business houses will be open in the morning, but it is not probable that any trade will be done in the afternoon. The post office will be open as usual, as it is very difficult to close that institution.

The Express gives currency to a report from Washington that Maj. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, commanding the Department of the South, has not authorized the use of his name in connection with the Cleveland Convention, and declines, while on duty in his present command to take part in political movements.

Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A prize fight occurred at Morris' Grove, near Jamaica, Long Island, to-day, between Teddy McVulliffe and Billy Kelly for six hundred dollars. Fifty-five rounds were fought, lasting an hour and a half. Both parties were severely punished. The affair ended in a fight between the seconds, and the main fight was declared a draw by the referee.

Senator Ancona Defeated for the Democratic Congressional Nomination.

READING, PA., August 28.—Hon. P. S. Ancona, the present member of Congress from the Berks district, was a candidate for re-nomination by the Democratic County Convention, but was defeated by H. Lawrence Getz, who received the nomination by a majority of 12.

Hon. J. M. Broomall Re-nominated for Congress—Soldiers for County Offices.

WEST CHESTER, PA., August 28.—Hon. J. M. Broomall was re-nominated for Congress by the Republican Convention to-day. All the nominations for county officers were soldiers.

Cholera in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, August 28.—The report of the Health Officer shows the number of deaths for the week to be eighty-four, whereof by cholera there were twenty-two. The disease has not assumed here an epidemic form this season, and is now abating.

Congressional Nominations.

DETROIT, August 28.—J. N. Ferry and J. F. Driggs were to-day re-nominated by the Republican Convention of the 4th and 6th Congressional districts respectively.

Cholera at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28.—The cholera burials on Saturday amounted to ninety, on Sunday to eighty, and on Monday to eighty-five.

Surveyor of Albany.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Washington specials say that Col. John Hastings has been appointed Surveyor of the port of Albany.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

The Forthcoming Lecture Season.

The forthcoming lecture season will probably be the most brilliant ever enjoyed by an intelligent community. As a general thing Pittsburgh liberally supports first-class literary feasts of this character, but up till within a very short period the lectures provided for the people were a certain set of distinguished luminaries of whom they soon tired and wanted to hear new men. The last two seasons were certainly exceptions, and the coming one will undoubtedly surpass them. The Tennyson Club, which is composed of many of the most intelligent and intellectual citizens, have been driven from the track, as they find paying five or six hundred dollars over and above their receipts each season, for providing intellectual food for the people, does not pay. We can attribute no good reason for the ill success of the Club, save it be that in the outset, cold water was thrown upon the organization and a prejudice created against it in the minds of the community, by the President of another lecture-providing institution in his printed annual address. The Tennyson members state that they will not appear in the lecture ring this season, but will in the succeeding one.

The Mercantile Library Association promises to give an unusual array of lectures the coming season. They have established a brilliant reputation in this line, and come out each season with a handsome balance to their credit. The public Catholic Library Association have taken the field and will shortly announce a course of lectures and readings by the eminent and talented Protestant and Catholic citizens and scholars of the country. Their committee has been at work for several weeks, and, we are informed, have met with decided success in obtaining choice lecturers. This will be the first course of lectures given by this flourishing association, which numbers nearly one thousand, and is daily increasing.

The Public Library Association of Allegheny will also take the field and cater to the intellectual appetite of the lecture going community. They met with decided success last season, and as they then showed the right spirit of enterprise, we can safely promise that this season they will not fall far behind their Pittsburgh neighbors. This Library Association is in a most flourishing condition, and daily makes new accessions to its roll of members. We also hear of other literary institutions who are arranging to enter into lecture giving, and from present appearances we can safely assure our readers that there are many rich intellectual feasts in store for them during the coming fall and winter.

Crazy or not Crazy. That is the Question.

Some railroad employees connected with the Pan Handle road, brought to the city yesterday morning by the six o'clock train from Columbus, a man, who is either insane or feigning insanity, who has been guilty of some mischievous tricks at and around Mansfield, near this city. For several weeks he has been a terror to that peaceful neighborhood. His greatest peculiarity seems to be a general and promiscuous desire to smash up things. He has been amusing himself by cutting telegraph wires, breaking the windows of the station house, and he very cooly informed the officer that if he had not been taken when he was, that he should have placed some railroad ties across the track, and then there would have been a "jolly smash up." At the Union Depot, Officer Rook was on hand to take charge of the prisoner, who asked him if he was an officer. Upon Mr. Rook informing him that he was, he said "do you think you can arrest me." The officer replied that he thought he could, and if he could not, he had others at hand who could assist. The fellow walked arm in arm with the officer to the jail without showing any resistance. He refuses to give his name. When asked what idea he had for committing his depredations, he replied that the devil put it in him.

Good Intent Pic-Nic.

The Good Intent Fire Company will hold a grand pic-nic to-day at McFarland's Grove. Extensive preparations have been made by the Committee of arrangements to ensure comfort and pleasure to their guests, and from our knowledge of those who compose that Committee, nothing will be wanting to make it a complete success. The proceeds will be expended in assisting the Company to procure a new apparatus and placing them in the position they formerly occupied—that of one of the finest organizations in the department.

Malicious Mischief.—Frederick Lent appeared before Alderman Morrow yesterday and made oath against Peter and Felix Seifert for malicious mischief. The offence consisted in the defendants stoning Lent's cows, until they became so exhausted as to be unable to give the usual quantity of milky fluid. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the offenders, who, as well as the prosecutor, live in Pitt township.

Grand Inauguration of the Republican Headquarter—Speeches, Music, &c.

The formal opening of the Republican Headquarters at City Hall took place last evening as announced by the County Executive Committee through these columns. When the meeting was called to order, at eight o'clock, there was not a seat in the vast auditorium unoccupied, and even the gallery in the rear was thronged with people. The greatest harmony and enthusiasm prevailed, and when the chairman of the County Committee, A. W. Watson, Esq., mounted the stage, there was an outburst of applause that made the great building tremble to its base.

After it had subsided, Mr. Watson said:

Fellow-Republicans: It is my duty, as well as my pleasure, to announce to those assembled here to-night, that this Hall—associated with so many glorious recollections of the past—is to be dedicated to the use of the great Union party, that during the war has succored within its walls so many of the Union defenders. (Applause.) I can assure you the Janitor has swept it clean—as clean, at least, as could be expected after the accumulated filth that was here last evening. (Applause.) As soon as we have time we will have it thoroughly scrubbed, and we hope everything will henceforth be found satisfactory in the arrangements that have been completed.

The following list of officers have been nominated to serve during the campaign. Mr. Watson then read the list of names herein given, who, on a vote being taken, were declared unanimously elected:

President.—Joseph Ross, Esq.

Vice President.—Col. David W. Megraw, Allegheny city, Col. Geo. Gerst, Allegheny city; Capt. James McVicker, Allegheny city; Capt. Casper Gang, Allegheny city; Capt. Samuel C. Schoyer, Allegheny city; E. P. A. [illegible], Allegheny city; John Heath, Allegheny city; John Brown, Jr., Allegheny [illegible] Esq., Shaler township; [illegible] Elizabeth township; [illegible] township; Capt. Geo. W. G[illegible] J. B. M'Grew, West Elizabeth; [illegible] B. Hines, Tarentum township; Edward P. Johnston, Lawrenceville; Chas. Bryson, Birmingham; Geo. Seriold, Lawrenceville; Major W. B. Neeper, Pittsburgh; Jos. Brown, Pittsburgh; Allen Wall, Elizabeth; Capt. Jos. Johntsown, Plum township; Capt. Wm. Crider, Allegheny city; Capt. W. D. Jones, Pittsburgh; Capt. J. K. Noble, Pittsburgh, Capt. C. J. Ewing, Pittsburgh; Col. J. B. Clark, Allegheny city; H. M. Moffat, Plum township; J. W. Larimer, Versailles township. W. J. Richardson, Esq., Temperanceville; Gen. Chas. Barnes, Allegheny; Dr. A. H. Gross, Allegheny; Col. Wm. Glenn, Mansfield; Harrison M'Enrey, Noblestown; Capt. M'Clelland, Bakerstown; Geo. Mone, Esq., Duquesne; G. T. Coulter, Esq., North Fayette; Jno. McM. King, Esq., Pittsburgh; Jas. Keese, Esq., Pittsburgh; Adolph Gotginger, Allegheny; Alex. T. Patterson, Manchester; Chas. C. Baisly, Pittsburgh; Wm. Irwin, Temperanceville; Andrew M'Cartney, Chartiers; Jos. Walton, Birmingham; R. R. McQuistion, Coultersville; Levi Edmondson, Elizabeth; And. Arent, Reserve; Thos L. Shields, Sewickley; Jno. W. Chalfant, Wilkins; M. A. Woodward, Allegheny; Capt. H. A. Fleming, McClure; W. Henderson, Indiana; Isaac Jones, Pitt township; R. B. Coursin, McKeesport; Jas. Dickson Neville; Jas. Robinson, Ohio township; Geo. Neely, Marshall township; Jno. Herron, Shaler; Jno. A. Williams, Duquesne.

Secretaries.—Maj. H. P. Morrison, Pittsburgh; Capt. E. H. Montooth, Pittsburgh; Capt. R. B. Parkinson, Pittsburgh; Capt. Wm. Graham, Pittsburgh; Capt. C. Hasbruck, Pittsburg; Col. J. H. Foster, Allegheny; John K. Negley Collins; Wm. Neile, Reserve; Capt. Theo. Bagley, Allegheny; Wm. Hamilton, Allegheny; Wm. M. Moffet, Allegheny; Capt. Robert Pollock.

Before the reading of the names had been concluded, the Second Ward Geary Club, numbering some one hundred and fifty men, headed by a brass band and bearing quite a number of Japanese lanterns with a transparency on which was written "Second Ward, Sound as Usual, Good for 300 Majority," entered the hall and were received with three rousing cheers.

When quiet had been restored, Mr. Ross, Chairman elect, came forward, and after thanking those present for the honor conferred upon him, proposed three cheers for Moorhead, Geary and the County ticket, which was responded to with a vim. A gentleman called for three cheers for the hero of the Twenty-Third District—Hon. Thomas Williams, and in answer to the call the entire assemblage arose to their feet and cheered for at least two minutes.

Hon. J. K. Moorhead was then introduced, and was very flatteringly received. He said he was always glad to appear before his constituents; but he felt that he ought to be present on this particular occasion, for the simple reason that on last evening, from that very stage, he was announced as a beat man. Let our opponents think so, and we shall see the result. My competitor said here last night—if properly reported in the daily Post—that I was a beat man. Well, let him think so, it will do him no harm, and I am sure it will do me none. He also said he stood by the policy of Andrew Johnson as set forth in his veto messages, and as illustrated by the action of the Philadelphia Convention. He said that Allegheny county had a representative in Congress who opposed that policy. He was correct, the speaker had opposed it, and would continue to do so as long as he retained his seat in the Legislative Halls of the United States. [Applause.] The Conservative candidate for Congress also said that the speaker declared in Birmingham, that he (Mr. Switzer) was willing to admit the rebels back into Congress, knowing what he said to be false. The speaker objected to this last assertion and he was afraid he would be forced to recall what he had said of Mr. Swetzer in Birmingham, if he would continue in that ungentlemanly course. He had told the people there that his competitor was a gentleman. He hoped his conduct would not prove otherwise. If Mr. Sweitzer is not in favor of admitting the rebels back into Congress, that was no one's business. but the political friends of the gentleman declare that to be the cardinal doctrine of their party. He was in favor of admitting the Southern States to representation in Congress as soon as they had furnished sufficient guarantees that they would not break their oath of fealty to the government, as they had done before. He was not willing, however, to allow those leading traitors, with blood stained hands, to take seats in Congress, that at the outbreak of the war, they had deserted. This was the policy of Congress, and he, as a member of that body, was in full accord with their policy, until the Union should be established on a firmer basis than before. He had to be brief in his remarks, as there were others present anxious to address them, and he therefore withdrew, after thanking his auditors for their kind and patient attention.

SPEECH OF HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS.

Hon. Thomas Williams next appeared on the stage in answer to repeated calls, and made quite a lengthy address. He said he had not come out to make a speech. He had not supposed there would be any speaking, that he thought it was a general [illegible] of the forces previous to the battle [illegible] was crippled, and who was rea[illegible] sort of a house warming—[illegible] immense number of able bodied veterans before him he was led to suppose there were few invalids in the ranks.

He had received a letter from a gentleman in Cleveland, asking him if he could rely in this commonwealth furnishing the same majority for Geary it had given Hartranft last fall. I told him to put Allegheny county down for eight thousand majority. In answer to his interrogation of, "Was I right?" There were loud cries of "Yes! yes!" and deafening applause. When the brave boys who had composed the Union army returned one year and a half ago and stacked their arms, we congratulated ourselves that the war was at an end—that peace had been restored. But subsequent developments have shown that we were mistaken; the enemy were subdued—not conquered. The snake was only insensible—not killed, and by the fostering care of the President the serpent has almost regained its wonted vigor. He had opposed the nomination of Andrew Johnson to the Vice Presidency because he knew his former record. When the Southern States were on the eve of rebellion, Andrew Johnson had declared in the Senate that the election of Mr. Lincoln was a vital blow aimed at the liberties of the South. He told them they were wronged but that secession was not their remedy. He advised them to remain in Congress, and they could by their votes bind the newly elected Executive in such a way that he would be willing to surrender the government into the hands of the South. The only difference between him and the leaders of the rebellion was, that he was opposed to secession and in favor of revolution.

It was for this he opposed his nomination for Vice President. He was fearful something would happen to Mr. Lincoln, and that the mantle of the since martyred hero would descend to the shoulders of Mr. Johnson, who was, at best, of doubtful loyalty. Because Andrew Johnson was Vice President, Lincoln was slain. If a good, sound loyal man had been elected to preside over the deliberations of the Senate, there would have been no premium for assassination.

As a member of the Judiciary Committee, he felt authorized to say—without breaking his faith—that there was abundant evidence in their hands to prove Jefferson Davis and Clement C. Clay guilty of complicity in the plot that culminated in the assassination of our former revered Chief Magistrate.

The Judiciary Committee have frequently attempted to bring these men to trial, but they were so hedged in by the machinations of the President, who never intends they should be punished—that all their efforts were futile. Mr. Johnson wants Congress to arrange for the trial of Davis and his coadjutors in the rebel State of Virginia. He commanded Chief Justice Chase to proceed there and organize a legal tribunal for that purpose. But the Chief Justice very properly answered that he had no authority to hold a Court where martial law existed, as all law was silent when military law was in force.

The speaker said he had the testimony of hundreds of Southern men who declare that there could not be a jury got to convict Davis in any of the rebellious States, no matter what the character of the evidence against him would be. The speaker alluded to the efforts of the President and his family to gain a seat for his son-in-law, Judge Patterson, in the United States Senate. He said the Judge could not take the oath of fidelity to the Government prescribed by Congress, and a dispensation was granted under which he took his seat. In speaking of the representation of the South, he said he was unwilling that the South should increase her representation from three to five, by counting the negro, unless she allowed him a right to vote. If this is a white man's government, then let only white men be represented in it.

The speaker dwelt at considerable length on the question of reconstruction, and argued strongly in favor of the policy adopted by the majority in Congress. He said while he was willing the South should be represented, he was not willing that blood stained traitors should be their representatives, and as long as he was a member of that body, he would object to sit with those blood-dyed traitors and incendiaries.

In conclusion, Mr. Williams said he had received, during the last session, frequent petitions asking him to move the impeachment of Andrew Johnson for usurping power and attempting to erect State Governments at his own personal dictation—subject only to his imperial will. When he went back to Congress, he would vote, if he did not move for the impeachment and trial of the President. (Immense cheers.)

After thanking the assemblage for their attention, Mr. Williams withdrew amid a perfect storm of applause.

Mr. Carnahan next took the stand, and after paying a high tribute to the ability and integrity of the gentleman who had preceeded him, delivered a short, but scorching review of Senator Cowan's speech as published by the newspapers. Mr. Carnahan concluded his able and eloquent address by urging all to place their shoulders at the political wheel and work for the noble standard bearer, Gen. John W. Geary. Let us fight our old enemy; we known his strength, and will not do our full duty unless a majority of thirty thousand be rolled up at the election to forever stifle opposition in this Commonwealth.

Mr. Carnahan gave way to Tom Marshall, Esq., who took the stand amid the most deafening cheers, stamping of feet, clapping of hands, and other manifestations of enthusiasm. He was the popular speaker of the evening, and although the hour was late, he held the vast audience in humorous excitement for over thirty minutes. We regret that our crowded space will not permit us to give our readers his speech as furnished by our reporter. It was a keen, searching review of the new party and its members, abounding in flashes of wit and good humor, which nearly every minute brought down the house in peals of laughter and enthusiasm. His reference to the noble conduct of the national office holders of this district, who refused to barter away their principles for filthy lucre, was a fitting tribute to the moral worth, of these gentlemen, and was so recognized by the audience. At the conclusion of Mr. Marshall's address three cheers were given with a will for Gen. Geary, and the meeting adjourned.

The Triumph of Truth.

Without hesitation it may be said, that sooner or later truth will be sure to triumph. There never was, and is not now a greater exemplification of this fact, than in the wonderful success of "Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher." It is the remedy of medicines, and is sure to perform all that it promises. Dr. Keyser assures us that every bottle of it is prepared with the greatest care, and no root or herb of a deteriorated quality is allowed to enter into its manufacture. The cures that it has already made, have placed it in the very acme of public estimation, and there is no limit to the power of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher in the cure of all diseases of the blood or in a depraved or cachectic habits of the system.

1. It has cured the worst cases of cancer.
2. It has cured the most loathsome ulcers.
3. It will render the system proof against all malarial influences.
4. It has cured erysipelas of twenty-five years standing.
5. It has cured the worst forms of chronic rheumatism after the joints were stiffened.
6. It has cured cases of palsy after everything else had failed.
7. It has restored the blind to sight.
8. It has opened the ears of the deaf.
9. It has cured scrofula when the whole body was a map of sores.
10. It will purify the blood and enable the system to acquire energy and strength.
11. It has cured the worst form of piles.
12. It has cured chronic diarrhœa.
13. It has cured hundreds of persons of dyspepsia.
14. It has cured dropsy.
15. It will cure all chronic diseases of the kidneys.
16. It has no equal in the United States as a blood medicine, and may be taken by the most tender infant without harm.
17. Be sure to get Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, 140 Wood street, and take no other.
18. If your druggist don't keep it, write to Dr. Keyser and he will send it.
19. Price one dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars.

Opera House.

The Opera House was filled last night to witness the performance of Lawrence Barrett's new play entitled the "Favorite of Fortune." It is a quiet play with a simple plot, and it was placed upon the stage and played in a remarkably effective manner. Mr. Barrett performed the part of Armally with a quiet ease that was perfectly refreshing. Had the character been a real instead of an assumed one the part could not have been performed in a more natural manner. Quiet, easy and graceful, with a countenance at times careless and emotionless, and at others expressive of the feelings which wrung a noble soul, he held the audience in wrapt attention from the beginning to the end of the piece. Mr. Barrett possesses in an eminent degree an essential element to a finished actor. He sinks self. He enters fully into the spirit of the character he represents. Miss Annie Waite was excellent as Hester. Her articulation is distinct, her reading faultless, and her actions easy and natural. What more can be said? Mr. Leak as the good natured Tom Sutherland was the right man in the right place. He has all the elements of a fine actor. The other characters were performed with good taste, and the play went off very smoothly for the first performance. The piece will be repeated to-night.

Outrage at a Camp Meeting.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: A gentleman who has just returned to the city from the camp meeting on Castleman's Run, in Brooke county, informs us that on Saturday evening an individual named Phillibum, a man of disreputable character, was engaged in making himself merry at the expense of others, with whom he was seated in one of the conveyances plying between the camp and Bethany, and that on being requested to discontinue his demonstrations by those having authority about the camp, he got out of the conveyance and replied to the well meant advice by a volley of oaths and stones. One of the latter struck a small boy, a son of Mr. Davis, of Bethany, inflicting a very serious wound upon the back part of his head, from the effects of which, the boy, up to the time our informant left, Sunday evening, had not spoken.

Phillibum was arrested, and on Sunday evening was safely lodged in the Brooke county jail, at Wellsville.

Temperanceville Council.

The Temperanceville Council held its regular monthly meeting on Saturday evening last. Members present, Messrs. Carnahan, West, Garbett, Hershberger and Burgess Carnahan.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

On motion, the Burgess was authorized to draw his warrants in favor of the following persons:

Duff & Ewing, bill of lumber	$96 20
Thos. K. Petty, " "	31 55
Thos. Hershberger, bill of hauling	32 00
John Lowry, 1 day's work	2 00
Isaac Wilkinson, 3 days' work	7 00
Frank McFadden, 3 days' work	5 25
Henry Westfall, 12 days' work	25 00
Removing Nuisances	50

On motion, Council adjourned.

SAMUEL CARNAHAN, Burgess.
S. H. FRENCH, Clerk of Council.

We Hope Not.—We learn that efforts are now being made to secure the pardon of William Dalzell and Arthur Kirkpatrick, who were convicted at the recent term of the United States Court of dealing in counterfeit money, and were sentenced, the first to seven and the latter to three years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary. The case with which noted criminals secure pardons now-a-days, almost makes a dead letter of the law, and renders convictions useless. We hope that these men may be made to feel the full extent of the penalty of the law they have outraged.

Changed Hands.—The spicy Democratic organ of Cambria county—the Sentinel, published at Ebensburg, has changed hands. Clark Wilson, Esq., retiring and W. H. McEnrue, Esq., assuming the proprietorship and editorial chair. As much as we differ in politics with our neighbor, we cannot but admire the taste in which it is gotten up and the general high tone of its reading matter. We wish the Sentinel all the success due a first class weekly journal, which it promises to be in the hands of Mr. McEnrue.

Dismissed the Case.—Manager Hess withdrew his suit against Geo. Hall yesterday in a brief note to the Mayor, in which he stated that he had not the time, and did not wish the annoyance of prosecuting. He stated that he should look to his Honor for the protection of his property, and that he would himself defend any attacks against his person. The course pursued by Manager Hess is endorsed by every order-loving citizen who frequents the Opera House, and he will find that the public will sustain him.

A Good House.—Nothing is so valuable in a community as a good hotel property managed. Such a one is the Morgan House, situated on the corner of Pasture Lane and Taylor avenue in the Second ward, Allegheny. The chamber and cusine arrangement about this establishment is almost perfect, while the proprietor, Mr. G. C. Lightcap, is a Chesterfield in courtesy, and all who have occasion to meet him at his house will agree with us when we say he is the "prince of good fellows.

Charged With Stealing a Horse.—Jacob Mullen came to the office of Justice Piper, of Peebles township, yesterday, and made oath against Wm. Dalzell for stealing a horse from the stable of the prosecutor in Peebles township. The accused was arrested but was discharged after a hearing, having furnished evidence to show that he had hired the horse from Mullen for five dollars, to haul a load of vegetables to market, and had returned the animal the following day.

Serious Accident.—A lad named Christian Goodyear fell off the roof of his father's house, situated in Bank Lane, in the city of Allegheny, yesterday afternoon, and broke his right leg a little below the knee. He also received injuries about the head which may have a fatal result. Dr. J. A. Herron was the attending physician.

In Limbo.—A certain John Davis, who claims to hail from Pittsburgh, has been committed to jail in Wheeling for stealing an overcoat from a lawyer in that city. John doesn't belong here at all. He is probably a remnant of the Philadelphia Convention who has floated out that way.

Drayman Injured.—Robert Scott, a drayman in the employ of R. W. Watson & Co., liquor dealers, on Liberty street, was severely injured yesterday, by falling from his dray, on Wayne street. He was taken to his home, in the Fifth ward, in an insensible condition.

Notarial Appointment.—Joseph Snowden, Esq., has been reappointed Notary Public by Governor Curtin.

Cross Suits.—Mary Jenkins appeared before Justice Lippi yesterday, and made oath against Lucretia Mooney for assault and battery. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing to-day. She subsequently made oath against Miss Jenkins, before the same magistrate, for surety of the peace, and was also required to furnish bail in the sum of $300 for a hearing on Saturday.

DIED.

FOSTER—On Monday evening, 27th inst. MARY E., wife of John W. Foster.

The funeral will take place from the residence of her husband, Chestnut street, Lawrenceville, THIS (Wednesday) AFTERNOON, 29th inst., at 2 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

DEATH OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

We erred in saying that the Democracy of New York had managed to swallow up the few followers of the President outside of that organization. In the proceedings of "the Democratic and Johnson National Union Committee" who recently met at Albany, the Democratic name was dropped —expunged, discarded, repudiated—just as it has been in Pennsylvania. Democracy has at length lost its name and its identity. It is numbered with the things of the past. It is dead.

That the party survived as long as it did is one of the wonders of the age; for the load of combined slavery and aristocracy which it had to carry for more than a score of years was enough to have sunk anything less vital long, long ago. But the fugitive slave law, the DRED SCOTT decision, and the Nebraska bill were monstrosities which even it could not carry, and in 1860 it broke down. Still it retained some vitality, and made sundry spasmodic efforts to rise again; and had the great rebellion been a success it might have succeeded. But the bad success of that great movement of professed democrats left no hope for the party. All cohesion was gone, and the debris of it and the rebellion lay all around in disorganized confusion. Seeing this plentiful supply of loose materials, composed mainly of copperheads and rebels—some with merely enough brains to follow their leaders and hate negroes; others whose wrecked fortunes as traitors had rendered them desperate—a few enterprising gentlemen conceived the idea of building up a new party—a conservative party—that is a party in which as much as possible of the spirit of slavery should be conserved, together with the spirit of the rebellion, and the principles out of which the rebellion sprung. A party which should place traitors and patriots, rebels and loyal men, on an even platform as to merit, but practically give a little preference to traitors and rebels. The prime object and the great work of the new organization is to be to crush the party and the men who crushed the rebellion.

In ANDREW JOHNSON, that singular compound of egotism and obstinacy, these enterprising political engineers, WEED, SEWARD, COWAN, DOOLITTLE, the BLAIR family, and others, with a large number of co-partners from the ranks of the leading rebels, found an agent exactly adapted to their purpose. The late Philadelphia Convention was the result; and the first and almost the only thing they did there was to strangle the poor old party that had been worked almost to death in their hard and wicked service, and give it a hasty burial in a nameless grave.

Fearing that VALLANDIGHAM, FERNANDO WOOD and one or two other democratic chiefs might be disposed to fight for the poor old thing, they were thurst out of the Convention. Then the deed was done; and by way of funeral procession, South Carolina personified by some dozen rebels, and Massachusetts caricatured by the same number of recreant sons, marched arm in arm. "Alas! poor YORRICK!"

PARTY RANCOR.

Congress, at its last session, made an appropriation of ten thousand dollars to build a monument in honor of ABRAHAM LINCOLN. This manifestation of respect and honor to the memory of a President, stainless in all the relations of private life, and whose public virtues brought on him the hand of an assassin, is made the occasion for an outpouring of vituperation on the part of many Democratic journals. This outburst of rage and abuse is not shared in solely by journals that have carried a reputation for subterraneanism, but is participated in by others which make professions of decency, if not of dignity. While European opinion, recovering from the misapprehension and prejudice under which it labored four years ago, is rapidly coming to recognize in Mr. LINCOLN not only eminent purity, but also conspicuous ability, his political opponents at home allow their curiosities towards him to be intensified by reason of that halo of remorse which gathers about his memory. This is a fresh illustration of the fact that partizan hatreds and jealousies are less under the control of reason and justice than any other passions by which the minds of men are agitated.

The path of WASHINGTON to apotheosis lay through unmeasured contumelies and abuse. No public name in this country was ever assailed with so pitiless a storm of defamation. His enemies denied him all public virtues and meritorious services, and even pursued him into the inner sanctuary of his private relations. It is something appalling, even now, to peruse the political pamphlets through which the destruction of his character and fame was sought; and the columns of Duane's Aurora excite the disgust and indignation of every reader. Not a few of these libels emanated from the graceful and powerful pen of Mr. JEFFERSON, even while he held a seat in the Cabinet of the First President. As a specimen may be taken the demoniac leaders in which the Aurora celebrated the retirement of WASHINGTON from the Presidential chair.

Nevertheless the character of WASHINGTON slowly but grandly emerged from the terrible ordeal until it assumed colossal proportions, and took its place in history, the brightest and purest America has yet produced among all her statesmen. Indeed, the reaction has been so great that the fame of WASHINGTON now presents a sort of unearthly aspect, divested of all the weaknesses and foibles incident to human nature. It is even perilous to a writer to tell truth respecting his life and habits, so intense is the admiration and deep the popular love for him.

A like position awaits LINCOLN. His early friends can afford to wait the verdict of posterity.

A CALL has been issued for a Convention of Soldiers and Sailors who served the national cause during the rebellion, and now support the President's Policy, to meet at Cleveland, September 17th. Many of the men concerned in this movement have good military records behind them. They were brave and skilful officers. As citizens they have the same right as their fellows to follow what political party they will.

NEY! the bravest of the brave, demonstrated that he could change sides with wonderful facility. He does not stand alone in European history. Indeed, he has such a numerous company, that "soldiers of fortune" is acknowledged to be a phrase comprehending multitudes of able men. GEORGY, the Hungarian, has recently obtruded himself afresh, on the recollections of his countrymen.

LEE, JOHNSON, JACKSON, and many more of the rebel leaders, had excellent records in the Federal armies, and had oaths recorded in heaven and on earth to be true to the flag; but they were swept from their moorings of loyalty. We do not say they were dishonest. But they allowed certain considerations to have great weight which were entitled to little; and so were led into great faults.

Some of the signers of the Cleveland call were intensely radical, and not long ago. They have experienced sudden conversions. We do not say their conversions were unreal. Sudden conversions are sometimes good and substantial. But, on the whole, we do not like that sort of conversion. BERNADOTTE and NEY fought for the Convention and against it—for NAPOLEON, and against him, and for him again. History judges them. It may do them wrong; but it will judge.

SENATOR COWAN'S SPEECH.

The speech of this gentleman at the City Hall, on Monday evening, is reported at length in the papers of this city which favor his views. We have looked over the report, but can find nothing that rises to the dignity of argument. We quote a single paragraph as a sample, and as our justification for taking no further notice of it:

I told you that our pride and our boast was that this was a government of law, that it was our security, that it did not depend upon the will of one man, or any set of men. It does not depend on the will of the Executive, whether such things shall be or shall not be; it does not depend upon Congress, but it depends upon the law, the established law. Then if these States were in the Union by the law, and if that law has not been repealed and cannot be repealed, except by the American people, that they are yet in the Union by the law. (Applause.) They are there by your law, and the man who in spite of your law says that they are not there, insults you to your face. (Laughter.) These twelve States are in the Union by the law; the people are bound by the law, submit to the law, and are entitled to the law. (A voice—"We will keep them by the law.") Yes, we will keep them by the law. (Long continued applause.)

A RIDICULOUS SCENE.

General J. BOWMAN SWEITZER is the candidate for Congress in the 22d district on the ticket—really we hardly know what to call it—the ticket put forth by the men who support the President's policy, and draw their inspiration from Senator COWAN. At their meeting at City Hall the other night the gallant General made the closing speech. He told his auditors (as we find it reported in the Post) that—

"He had the honor of being one of the Convention that met at Philadelphia to endorse that policy. Senator Cowan had shown that Mr. Johnson had followed out the policy of the martyr Lincoln, and no one could doubt after his clear exposition that the re-construction policy that we favor is that of the late President. Allegheny county had a representative in Congress who opposed that policy. The speaker was a candidate for Congress, and if elected, he would, to the extent of his ability, support the President. (Cheers.) He wanted all who were going to vote for him to say aye. (A tremendous aye.) I tell you, gentlemen, Gen. Moorhead is a licked man. (Laughter and cheers.")

Mr. Shaw Declines—A Card.

Having seen the name of JOHN SHAW, of Shaler township announced as a candidate for County Commissioner, on what is called the Conservative ticket—a ticket nominated by some parties unknown, and subsequently endorsed and adopted, as is alleged, by the late Democratic County Convention, and put forth to be supported by those who approve of and will sustain the policy of President Johnson, I beg leave to state that they have named the wrong man—that I am a Republican; that I approve of the Congressional plan of Reconstruction, and not that of the President; that I shall vote for Gen. GEARY for Governor, and for the entire Republican ticket. I therefore respectfully decline the position assigned me. JOHN SHAW, of Shaler Tp.

The Campaign in Illinois.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

The campaign in Illinois opens with the promise of a magnificent victory in November. The spirit of 1861 swells the popular heart. The same resolution, the same indignation, the same enthusiasm that burned in the breasts of the people when the news came that traitors were marching on the capitol, are again in full play. We see a like peril impending over the nation—the only difference being a change of leaders. The rebel hordes are again moving on the capitol, and loyal men must come to the rescue. This is the whole substance of the fall campaign. Andrew Johnson hopes to elect enough Copperheads to Congress to constitute, with Orr, and Stephens, and Dick Taylor, and the rest of the pardoned rebels, a majority of the national legislature, whereupon he intends to unseat the loyal Congress and precipitate the country into another civil war. To meet this tremendous peril, and to avert this matchless calamity, the people are coming up in their power and might from every quarter of the State. They will say to Andrew Johnson in November, in tones of thunder: "You shall neither put your whitewashed Confederates in Congress to rule over us, nor shall you draw the sword or rob the treasury of the nation to intimidate our Representatives in the discharge of their lawful duties."

It is for Illinois, which gave Abraham Lincoln to the nation, and which now holds his lamented ashes, to set a glorious example to her sister States in the coming election. To the dead heroes who lie on every battle-field from Belmont to Mobile, we owe the duty of braving the new danger which assails the country, and battling the enemy who comes to conquer at the ballot-box what he could not achieve at the cannon's mouth. The basis of the restored Union must and shall be liberty and loyalty. We fought four years to secure the rights of American citizens in all parts of America, yet we have hardly grounded our arms when we are appalled by the New Orleans massacre, which tells too plainly that the fiendish spirit which brought on the war is alive again, and that it is capable of anything. This spirit must be put down if it takes another war and another generation to do it. Illinois will do her full share of the task, in any kind of a fight that may present itself. She will begin in the November election, and she will keep it up till the last rebel surrenders, and until the principle is established that loyal men have the right to dictate the terms on which conquered traitors may participate in the government of the country.

GENERAL NEWS.

—For six weeks not a drop of rain has fallen on the city of Chattanooga, and during all the time the thermometer has ranged from 92 to 102 degrees.

—The receipts of Internal Revenue since July 1st, are stated to be fifty-two millions. One effect of the last peace proclamation is to reduce the pay of private soldiers from $16 to $11 per month.

—The population of Saratoga is said to be just now about five hundred thousand flowing dresses, occupying about ten thousand trunks, and covering one thousand square miles of piazza.

—Mallory, the soldier who robbed the safe of Major Grierson, at Nashville, and was recently captured in Indiana, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to ten years' hard labor on the Dry Tortugas.

—A strange disease has appeared amongst the hogs of Cayuga county, N. Y. When attacked, they whirl around violently, bloating fearfully meanwhile; this is continued until they die; then ceases.

—An old revolutionary soldier named Frederick Craider died recently near Meadville, Mississippi, in the one hundred and eighth year of his age. He had served in the war of 1812, as well as during the revolution.

—A plot has been discovered among the President's reconstructed friends in New Orleans to assassinate General Sheridan, Commander of the Gulf Department. It was designed to accomplish his death by the explosion of a shell made for the occasion.

—The cholera has created a panic in St. Louis. Over 20,000 frightened persons have left the city within a fortnight. There were 119 burials of persons who died of cholera in eight of the cemeteries, yesterday, and thirteen other cemeteries have made no reports.

—According to the laws of New York the watering of milk is a misdemeanor. Three milk dealers were charged before Justice Kelly with this offense. They were fined fifty dollars each, the further punishment of thirty days imprisonment, which the statute gives, being remitted.

—We find it stated that there are now three hundred comfortable tenement houses built in Portland for those burned out at the late fire, which those resident under tents will occupy. The system of issuing rations will have to be kept up more or less all winter, but the number to whom these are given is being gradually reduced. They now number about seven hundred.

—A very wealthy merchant in Boston (says the Wocester Palladium) has suddenly changed his luxurious style of living for one more unpretentious and humble, for the reason that if any of his children should come to be poor, as in all probability some of them would be, they should not suffer in their feelings by the reflection that their father rode in his coach while they had to rough it on foot.

—The New York Evening Post collects the statistics of picture sales in that city for the past three years, and the gross footing is over $1,250,000. The larger proportion of this sum was paid for German and French pictures, for the list does not embrace the private sales of our American artists, who thus disposed of most of their works, and, in some cases, at prices far larger than were paid for the finest of foreign paintings.

TWENTY-ONE PERSONS DROWNED IN NORTHERN IOWA.—The Lansing Journal, giving an account of the recent storm in Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, says: "About forty-five miles northwest of Lansing is a small stream, between two rugged and steep banks. On that evening the flood gates of heaven were opened, and the water rose in that creek and valley fifteen feet in a single hour. Along that stream are many houses, and not one was left on Monday morning. Twenty one drowned men, women and children have been found and buried, and nine are missing. The details we hope to have next week."

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS, OR WORM LOZENGES.—Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no positive injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often cause prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

AN ORDINANCE relative to Railroads and Capital Stock formerly belonging to the city of Pittsburgh.

WHEREAS, The capital stock formerly belonging to the city of Pittsburgh in the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, and the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company, was assigned and transferred by the city to Thomas Bakewell and others, in trust for certain bondholders; and whereas, said trust has never been carried out, but has been abandoned; and whereas, the said stocks were sold at Marshal's sale on executions against the city; and whereas, the Finance Committee have heretofore sold to William Phillips any and all right and the title [illegible] that to the city might belong and pertain, now, to relieve the surviving trustees named in said assignment from any supposed liability, and to enable the said purchaser to assert his title as purchaser of said stocks against the parties who claim them as purchaser at the Marshal's sale; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, That Ruben Miller and John Holmes, the surviving trustees in the assignment made to them and others by the city authorities of the city's railroad stocks, are hereby relieved and discharged from the said trust, and from any and all liability therein to the city of Pittsburgh.

SEC. 2. That the action of the Finance Committee in making sale of the city's right and title in the said stocks, is hereby ratified and confirmed and the various railroad companies are hereby authorized, so far as the city is concerned, to treat with the said William Phillips in disregard of any previous assignment or transfer made by the city authorities.

SEC. 3. Ordained and enacted into a law this 27th day of August, 1866.
JAMES McAULEY, President of Select Council.
Attest: E. S. MORROW, Clerk of Select Council.
THOMAS STEEL, President of Common Council.
Attest: HUGH McMASTER, au29:147 Clerk of Common Council.

AN ORDINANCE authorizing the construction of a Public Sewer in Virgin alley.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, That the Recording Regulator be, and he is hereby, directed to advertise for proposals for the construction of a Public Sewer in Virgin alley, from Liberty street to Cherry alley.

SEC. 2. That for the payment and expense of said Sewer, it is hereby ordered and directed that the property benefited by the construction of said Sewer shall be assessed equitably and fairly, and the Councils do hereby appoint A. J. Gribbon, Jas. Parks and James Blackmore to make said levy and assessment, and, when approved by Councils, it shall be filed in the Sewer-Book in the Recording Regulator's office, and a duplicate copy shall be deposited with the City Treasurer, who shall regularly enter credits thereon opposite the names of the persons as they pay their assessments, and shall take receipts from contractors or others for all moneys paid them by authority of the Street Committee.

SEC. 3. And to let the same in the manner described by act of Assembly approved January 6th, 1864.

SEC. 4. That any ordinance or part of ordinances conflicting with the passage of this ordinance at the present time, be, and the same is hereby, repealed, so far as the same affects this ordinance.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Councils, this 27th day of August, A. D., 1866.

To Correspondents.

Almost from the time when newspapers first became an institution, editors have indulged in the request to correspondents that they would only write on one page of the manuscript furnished for publication. Many a poor wight spends hours in covering both sides of a sheet of foolscap for the benefit of the dear public, and then wonders why the churls of editors do not publish his voluminous lucubrations. A word in your private ear, dear friend. Abridge your manuscript, write on but one side of your paper, and that too, in a hand that will not resemble a transcript of a Greek or Hebrew manuscript, and probably your communications will not be thrown into the waste basket. There never was but one time when illegible copy, written on both sides of the paper was at all excusable, and that was during the first settlement of California, when paper was worth a dollar an inch and letters were written with charcoal on the margins of old newspapers. That day is past and gone forever.

Noblestown Concert.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A grand vocal and instrumental concert came off a few evenings since, in Noblestown. Noblestown is a thriving place, and the people are a thriving people. They recently gave that prince of musicians, Prof. Samuel J. Byers, (called Sam Byers for short,) of the big town of Clinton, an invitation to come down in his might with his band of sweet singers, from Service and "the moon" and all the region round about the aforesaid big town of Clinton, and give a concert—a grand concert—just such a concert as only Sam Byers could give, and delight the people of Noblestown, Federal Springs, Havelock, Thompsonville and Pintle Hill. And Sam Byers, who is known to be very courteous and accommodating, immediately consented to come. But, alas! for the varity of good weather. The day appointed for the concert came round, and with it came rain in fitful gusts, and showers, and splashes, and the people after gazing upward a while at the dark clouds that drifted dismally past, went in and shut their doors, and sat down by the fire and staid at home. But they didn't all shut their doors, and sit down by the fire and stay at home. There were two sessions of the concert—afternoon and evening—and at the afternoon session an audience of one hundred or more was present to greet the Professor and his class with encouraging smiles on their delighted faces.

In the evening the weather was more favorable for the turning out of the "youth and the beauty." The clouds had sprinkled and showered until they had "e' enamost gin eout," and then they floated away, leaving old mother earth in a dauby condition. In spite of the mud, however, the people turned out, and the lamps of the spacious church flamed and blazed on quite a respectable number of spectators.

Prof. Byers and his band of pretty singers took the stage at eight o'clock, and sang several excellent pieces.

The duett sung by the Misses Dilkes, styled "All's Well," was beautiful, and was performed in an admirable style. At its close the boots assembled from Federal Springs, Havelock and Pintle Hill, crashed on the floor in a perfect storm of applause. The Misses Dilkes astonished the people as piano players, whilst their singing was universally acknowledged to be the sweetest that ever delighted the ears of a Noblestown audience. The instrumental pieces performed by the Misses and Messrs. Dilkes were also excellent, and were received with the greatest delight. The pieces particularly admired were "The Dying Volunteer," "Little Maud" and "Give me Back my Mountain Home." They were performed in tip top style. The singing of "Sweepstakes" occasioned general remark.

The concert, particularly the evening session, was an entire success, and the Professor may well feel proud of it.

Delightedly, yours,
O. PHIDDLE STYX,
Of "Pintle Hill."

A Valuable Work.

Henry Miner has laid upon our table a new work, entitled "Coal, Iron and Oil." It is, as its name signifies, a plain and popular treatise on our mines and mineral resources, and a text book to their economical developements. It is illustrated with numerous maps and engravings exhibiting and explaining the geology, origin, and formation of coal, iron and oil; their peculiarities, characters and general distribution, and the economy of mining, manufacturing, and using them; with general descriptions of the coal fields, and coal mines of the world, and special descriptions of the antracite fields and mines of Pennsylvania, and the bituminous fields of the United States, the iron districts and iron trade of our country, and the geology and distribution of petroleum; the statistics, extent, production and trade in coal, iron and oil, and such useful information on mining and manufacturing matters as science and practical experience have developed to the present time. The work is the joint labor of Samuel Harries Daddow, Esq., practical miner, and engineer of mines, and Benjamin Bannan, Esq., Editor and proprietor of the Miners' Journal, published at Pottsville, Pa. As a work of reference it is invaluable, and no person interested in the three great staples which constitute the wealth of our State, should be without a copy. As a work of historical speculation, it will prove immensely valuable to the scientific man, and as a work of general interest, it will be found well worth a perusal. The author says that he offers his "theories" as substantial facts, and for them he alone (Mr. Daddow) is responsible.

A Quiet Woman in Trouble.

Jane Orr came to the office of Alderman Lynch, yesterday, and made oath against Samuel Bidwell, for surety of the peace. According to Janes' statement she is a mild, meek, and exceedingly harmless feminine; never interfering in her neighbors' business, only satisfied to get along in the world as easily as possible. But despite this quiet temperament she could not resist giving Bidwell a piece of her mind last week, for kicking her dog. The advise did not seem to agree with him for he became very belligerent, and repeatedly placed his clenched fist under Janes' nasal organ, and threatened to whip her, declaring he would have done so long ago if she had been a man. Very fortunately for Jane, no circumstance could unsex her, and she might have therefore reposed in security from Samuel's violence. But she viewed the matter from a different stand point, and fearing that her antagonist might lose his respect for the feminine portion of humanity, and carry out his threat, she made oath as stated. A warrant was issued for Samuel.

A Canadian in Pittsburgh.

We met, yesterday, Owen J. Develin, Esq., of Montreal, Canada, who was on a flying visit to this city, stopping with his relations—the McGraws—of Allegheny. Mr. D. was on his way to Washington City to look after a case involving some fifty thousand dollars claimed upon the following grounds: A Mr. George Cunningham, a citizen of Canada, during the rebellion visited New York for the purpose of purchasing goods, and whilst there, as is alleged, was enticed into a drinking saloon by a recruiting officer, drugged, robbed, enlisted into the Union army, and sent to the front. On becoming sober and conscious of his situation he made his case known to Lord Lyons, the British Minister, who represented it to Secretary Seward. After an examination into the facts Mr. Seward gave an order for the discharge of Cunningham, but ere it reached him he fell in battle. His heirs, therefore, claim damages in the sum above stated, which our government has agreed to settle amicably, hence Mr. Develin's visit to Washington, where he will represent the heirs of Cunningham.

The Tomato.—As an article of food the tomato in not only nutritious, but it possesses many medicinal qualities. It is one of the most powerful aperients of the liver and other organs, and can be substituted for calomel. It is also stated that, before long, experiments now being made, will result in procuring a chemical extract from the tomato that will ultimately supersede calomel in the cure of disease. Diarrhœa has been successfully treated with the tomato alone, and it is said to be an excellent remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion. Cooked or raw, the tomato as a daily food, is one of the most wholesome articles in use.

Military Re-union.—We acknowledge an invitation to be present at the Second Annual Re-union of the gallant old 62nd Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, to be held at Wilkins Hall, on Friday evening 14th proximo. The arrangements being made are of the most liberal and extensive character, and the managers are determined that the occasion will prove one of the most pleasant military reunions ever held in this city. A limited number of tickets have been issued and can be procured from the managers.

The Corn Crop.—It is estimated that the corn crop of Pennsylvania will reach, this year, nearly 30,000,000 bushels, that the average yield per acre will be in the neighborhood of thirty-three bushels, although in some localities as many as one hundred bushels will be grown on a single acre. There are several counties in the State where the average product will be over forty bushels per acre.

Personal.—We were favored yesterday with a call from Ernest S. Rhey, Esq., of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, who is now spending a few weeks among his numerous friends in Ebensburg. Ernest looks as well as ever, and his many warm admirers here will be pleased to learn that he has been most prosperous in the far off wilds of the west.

Knows How to Keep a Hotel.—A recent trip to Perrysville, and a warm supper at Keating's famous "White House," convinced us beyond any doubt that Joe Keating is the best specimen of a hospitable lanlord in these sections. In quest of pleasure, remember Keating's White House.

Another Violation.—James Fisher, the proprietor of a tavern in Birmingham was yesterday arrested and taken before Alderman Strain charged with having violated the law against selling liquor on Sunday. He was held to bail for a hearing to-morrow.

Mayor's Court.—Seven appears to be the magical number at the Mayor's Office. Yesterday morning there were seven cases before his Honor, six drunks and one female vag. Five of the drunks were sent to the hill, one paid his fine, and the unfortunate female was committed for five days.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Cholera—Activity in Fenian Affairs—An Invasion of Canada Contemplated—The Santa Anna Fraud Case.

NEW YORK, August 28.—There were five new cases of cholera and five deaths from the same disease reported yesterday. The mortuary reports of the past week shows a decrease. Since the report of the previous one, there were two deaths from cholera on Ward's Island, and two in the Lunatic Asylum on Sunday last. No new cases of deaths had occurred at the other public institutions. Reports from Brooklyn show a continued decrease in the number of cholera cases. There were two hundred and seventy one deaths in Brooklyn last week. The indications are that the cholera will soon entirely disappear from the city.

Fenian affairs in this city are looking up. Mr. Stephens and the escaped Dublin prisoners are sketching out their proposed battle ground, and in consequence of their renewed activity, considerable aid is forthcoming in the way of contributions. Mr. Stephens will probably leave for Troy to-day, on his western tour.

The headquarters of the Roberts faction are preparing vigorously for the coming Senate Caucus at Troy, on Thursday.

It is expected that this Congress will finally decide whether it is expedient to inaugurate another Canadian invasion. It is rumored that President Roberts has sent a special messenger to Ireland, to report on the state of Fenian affairs there. Canada is entirely relieved of her fears of an invasion for the present, but she is in no hurry to get rid of her defensive forces. The troops at Fort Erie have been ordered to break camp, but the active reorganization of militia still continues.

An order of arrest against Senor Dorco Maguera was granted by Judge Barnard yesterday, at the suit of General Santa Anna, charging him with fraud in the purchase of the steamship Georgia. He states in his affidavit that Maguera exhibited a letter to him in St. Thomas, purporting to be from Wm. H. Seward, urging the plaintiff to come immediately to the United States, as the Government was anxious and willing to aid him in his efforts on behalf of the Mexican people, which letter was a concoction of Maguera's, and not written by Wm. H. Seward. The plaintiff states that through the deceit and fraud of Senor Maguera, who has been his private Secretary, he has sustained damages to the amount of seventy thousand dollars.

The New Orleans Riots—Report of the Investigating Committee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A Times' New Orleans special says the Commission appointed by General Baird to investigate the late riot, have completed their labors, and their report will show that the first shot fired from a revolver was by a white man at the procession of freedmen. Twenty minutes then expired before any further disturbance took place. When the procession reached the place where the Convention was in session, the police interferred with it, and attempting to make arrests fired upon the freedmen who returned the fire.

A mob of citizens then joined the police, and the great massacre commenced. It also shows that several policemen hid their badges so as not to be recognized, and after entering the hall they disregarded the white flag and fired indiscriminately upon the unarmed members of the Convention and spectators. Some of the citizens wore badges, indicating an organization. Those in the room then with chairs, &c., drove the police and attacking party out and barricaded the doors.

After the barricade was established, not a single person in the building escaped unharmed, and about thirty were murdered, while credit is given to the police for saving the lives of all who were in the building, and are not now dead. The police force is found guilty of nearly all the murders that were committed. The evidence shows the policemen killed freedmen when they could have arrested them without trouble, and that wounded negroes were thrown into a cart and killed while struggling to free themselves from the dead bodies which had been placed on top of them. The commission will report that the riot was caused by the bitter feelings of citizens and police towards the radical Unionists and freedmen. They will also probably report that it was preconcerted, inasmuch as it is in the evidence that it was talked of previously for several days. It is the opinion of the Commission that if the military had not appeared at the time it did, the riot would have progressed to the extermination of all the Unionists and freedmen in the city. The city press are attacking Gen. Sheridan for what he reported in his official dispatches, charging him with untruthfulness.

Affairs in Balize and Cape Haytien.

NEW YORK, August 28.—The Herald's British Honduras correspondence, dated at Balize, July 25th, says: The Colonial affairs are not very promising. Property was burdened with Government taxes, and there was a general desire to avoid the payment of the imposts. The prisoners taken by the Yucatan Indians in April last, have been ransomed by the Colonial Government, and a claim will be made on Mexico for the expenses and costs, and security for their good conduct hereafter. The Colonists entertained the idea of applying all their energies to the cultivation of the sugar cane.

The Herald's Cape Haytien correspondence of August 5th, says: A fire, destroying seven hundred thousand dollars worth of property, occurred there on the 27th ult.

The insurgents had advanced upon Cape Haytien, but were repulsed with severe loss by the Government troops, under Gen. Montese. At last accounts they were in full retreat for San Domingo.

The President on His Western Tour.

WASHINGTON, August 28.—The excursion party left here at half-past seven this morning, under the superintendence of Major General McCullom, and Major G. S. Kountz as assistant, who has been detailed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to go with the train all the way through. Secretary McCulloch and Hon. O. H. Browning were at the station to take leave of the party, they being prevented by public business from accompanying them. The following is a list of the excursionists: The President of the United States, Secretary of the Navy and Treasury, their sons, Edgar T. Welles, the Postmaster General, General Grant and Chief of Staff, General Rawlings, Admiral Farragut, with Lieutenant McGinley, his Secretary, Rear Admiral Radford, Surgeon General Barnes, Minister Romero, Senator Patterson and wife, and others.

The Death of Dean Richmond—Reception of the President.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The Board of Trade passed appropriate resolutions on the death of Dean Richmond, and voted to close the rooms on the day of his funeral, at Batavia, which will take place at 2 P. M. Thursday, Aug. 30th.

The meeting at the Mayor's office last evening appointed a committee on the reception of President Johnson. There will be a grand ball at the International Hotel, Niagara Falls, on Saturday evening, complimentary to President Johnson and suite.

The Lansing Murderer Hung by a Mob.

DETROIT, August 28.—Taylor the negro who committed the murder near Lansing last week, was taken from the jail at Mason last night by a mob and hanged to a tree.

The Cholera in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, August 28.—Twenty-five deaths from cholera were reported yesterday.

BELL'S SPECIFIC REMEDIES

Are warranted in all cases, for the speedy and permanent cure of all diseases arising from sexual excesses or YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION, Seminal Loss, Nighty Emissions and Sensual Dreams, Genital, Physical and Nervous Debility, Impotence, Gleet, Sexual Diseases, &c., &c. NO CHANGE OF DIET IS NECESSARY. They can be used without detection, and never fail to effect a cure, if used according to instructions.

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

Price one dollar per box, or six boxes for five dollars; also, large boxes, containing four small. Price three dollars.

From four to six boxes are generally required to cure ordinary cases of Seminal Weakness and Emissions, though benefit is derived from using a single box.

In Chronic Cases, and particularly when Impotence or Genital Debility with Nervous Prostration has affected the system,

BELL'S TONIC PILLS

Are recommended as the most efficacious rejuvinating and invigorating remedy in the world. A package, price five dollars, will last a month, and is generally sufficient.

In extreme cases of Debility and Impotence,

Bell's External Remedy,

Price two dollars, sufficient for a month, can be used to good advantage.

It gives strength to the organs, and with the Pills will restore them to their normal condition.

CAUTION.—The above Remedies have now been before the public many years, and their great success in the alleviation of human misery, has excited the cupidity of several parties, who use the name "Specific Pills," copy my labels, circulars and advertisements, sometimes word for word, and put up worthless compounds that disappoint the just expectations of the purchaser.

If you cannot purchase Bell's Specific Remedies of your Druggist, take no other, but send the money direct to

TO LADIES.—If you require a reliable remedy to restore you, and remove irregularities or obstructions, WHY NOT USE THE BEST. Every lady knows the slightest irregularity of nature is likely to bring on Headache, Giddiness, Low Spirits, Fainting, Hysterics, &c.; then the bloom of health fades the appetite fails, and other symptoms more distressing commence, as Weakness, Spinal Complaint, the Whites, Prolapsus, &c., &c. A NEVER-FAILING REMEDY will be found in DR. HARVEY'S FEMALE PILLS. The experience of 25 years has proved they have no equal for removing obstructions and irregularities, no matter from what cause they arise. They are safe and sure in every case. Upwards of 50,000 boxes are sold annually, and no complaint of their efficacy is ever heard, for they accomplish what they are represented to do. Sold in boxes containing sixty pills. Price one dollar.

DR. HARVEY'S GOLDEN PILLS is a remedy four degrees stronger than the above, and intended for special cases of long standing. Price five dollars per box.

If you cannot purchase the Pills at your Druggist, they will be sent by mail, post paid, secure from observation, on receipt of the money, by Dr. JAMES BRYAN, Consulting Physician, No. 819 Broadway, New York.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

TUESDAY, August 28, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by P. H. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 149¾; 1881 bonds 112¾; 5-20s, old, 113¼; 5-20s, new, 109⅛@109⅜; 7-30's, 1st large, 106¾; 7-30s, 2d and 3d, 106¼; 10-40's, 102⅞@103. Michigan Southern Railroad, 85¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 87; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 104⅛@105; Erie Railroad, 73¼@73⅜; Western Union Telegraph Company, 57¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 9¼.

Gold is reported strong at 149¾, an advance of 2¾ per cent within twenty-four hours. The New York bank statement shows a still further decline in specie reserve, and what little there is on the street, is in the hands of operators for a rise. The effects of the treasury disbursements are scarcely perceptible on the prices of bonds or stocks, which, is owing partially at least to the fact, that the payments are made in national bank notes, and these cannot be used by banks in settlement at the clearing house.

The sudden advance in old Five Twenty bonds above the issue of 1865, has astonished Wall street operators. Nobody can account for it, except that the heavy sales by foreign houses at 109⅝@110, were "short" sales. Gold at 148¼, and bonds at 72¼ in London, will show a difference of 2 per cent in favor of the London quotations. As soon as the demand can be supplied from the west, these bonds must go down within a fraction of the price of the new ones.

—The Chicago papers notice a scarcity of currency in that place, with an uncomfortably close money market. In some cases New York balances have been drawn upon to obtain relief. The Republican, of that city, contains the following notice of a proposed National Bankers' Convention:

"A Convention of the National Bankers of the Northwest will be held in this city on the 12th of September next. In many respects this will be one of the most important commercial meetings ever held in the West, and a very full attendance is expected. We are not aware that the Convention has any other object in view than pass measures which will tend to protect the West against the rapacity of the East—particularly Wall street; but it is more than likely that a large variety of subjects will be discussed, including the payment of interest on deposits, the redemption of National Banks notes, &c. The scheme to compel all the National Banks in the United States to redeem their notes either in New York, Boston or Philadelphia—and which Wall street attempted to force through Congress—will probably be discussed, and the matter placed before the public in its true light."

—We are assured (says the Philadelphia Ledger) that the reports which from time to time find their way into the New York papers of sales of national bank notes at a discount of ¼ to 1 per cent, are false, and circulated by speculators to influence the market; that as yet the highest discount submitted to is 1-10 ⅜ per cent, and this only in a few instances. It is said that the parties circulating these rumors are very short of gold and stocks, and are connected with the more unscrupulous of the clique operators.

—The great popularity of the Five Twenty bonds at home and abroad (says the New York Tribune) should cause the Secretary of the Treasury to take immediate and efficient steps to secure the conversion of all the issues of Seven Thirties into this class of bonds. There should be no restriction as to the issue to be converted and the best interests of the department would be served by giving holders of Seven Thirties the one-eight commission for the exchange allowed by law. The fewer Seven Thirties outstanding, as they approach maturity, the less danger there is of the conversion of the whole in a dear money market. The gold revenue of the Treasury is so ample that the Secretary cannot be too eager to get his debts into long gold-bearing bonds.

New York Stock and Money Market

[By Telegraph.]

NEW YORK, August 28.—The ease in Money is steadily increasing under the Treasury disbursements, and the market is well supplied at 4@5 per cent. on call. Discounts range from 5½ to 6½ per cent. Gold closed up steadily at 148¾.

The open board this afternoon unanimously resolved to adjourn over until Thursday, out of respect for the President.

At the last board the general stock market was firm and quite strong after the call. Reading was the only weak stock this afternoon, and fell off one per cent. on a falling off in the tonnage and reports of stoppages at the mines. Governments still firm; 5-20's of 1865, 104⅜; 10-40 coupons, 102¾; 7-30's of July, 106⅝.

The Post notes the fact of the receipting of the report of the London Cotton market up to noon to-day, before it received that of our own market up to the same hour.

The Post's money article says: Money continues more abundant at 4, and even 5 per cent. in certain cases.

The Stock market is dull and irregular. Governments are still higher, and the advancing quotations are bringing in large amounts from country investors, some of whom are replacing 5-20's of 1862, at 113¼, with those of 1865, at 109¼.

Railroad Shares are dull and inactive. After the board Erie closed at 73⅜; New York Central, 104; Reading, 116¼; Michigan Southern, 85¾; Illinois Central, 123¾.

The Commercial's money article says: The Stock market continues quiet, contrary to a very general expectation. Governments continue very firm. Old Five-Twenties are in demand at 113⅛@113¼. The advance in these bonds appears to have been due as much to a corner in them as to any large foreign demand. Yesterday and to-day there was a borrowing demand for the bonds, which is supplied with difficulty. Some moderate orders for bonds have been received from Paris, which cannot be executed at the present price of exchange bonds. The orders appear to be from firms engaged in introducing them on the Bourse, rather than from investors. Erie is quiet. It is reported that already the speculative director has his re-election sure through stock in his own hands and proxies.

Money is a shade easier than yesterday. Call loans are 4@5 per cent., the majority of the transactions being at the lower rate. The payments on account of the temporary loan have not yet produced that extreme ease which was anticipated. Discounts are quiet, the amount of bills offering being very limited. Exchange continues very heavy. There is a large excess of bills over the demand. Sight bills drawn against Five-twenties, and Southern bills on Paris, are especially abundant. Some of the leading drawers of Sterling are asking 107 for sixty days bills, but we hear of no transactions at over 106¾. Good bills are offered at 106@106¼.

NEW YORK, August 28.—The Stock market at the final Board was inactive but strong. Gold steady and closing at 148¾.

The following were the prices of stocks at the four o'clock Board: Western Union Telegraph, 58⅛; New York Central, 104⅜; Hudson River, 119; Michigan Central, 112, Michigan Southern and New Jersey, 85⅝; Illinois Central, 123¾; Cock Island, 109, Cleveland and Toledo, 116; Northwestern, 37½; Northwestern preferred, 68⅛.

The open Board adjourned until Thursday, in honor of the President's visit.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSB'GH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Aug. 28, 1866.

CATTLE.

There was again a fair supply of cattle on sale at the Allegheny Yards this week, being estimated in round numbers at one thousand head, of which about nine hundred head changed hands, and the balance were held over for next week or shipped to the Central yards (East Liberty.) As compared with last week, the market presented but very few new features worthy of special notice. Prime to extra cattle were in limited supply, and sold readily at extreme prices, while common and inferior grades were very plenty and dragged considerably, even at a slight decline. Two small droves of prime steers were purchased for shipment—one at 8¼ and the other at 8⅜, and in a retail way, the best cattle sold at 8⅜ to 8¾. Stock cattle continue to meet with a very good demand at 5 to 5½, but holders generally are asking from 6 to 6¾. Bulls may be quoted at 3½ to 4¾.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a very full supply of Sheep on sale this week, and as the demand was restricted altogether to supplying the wants of the retail trade, the market was dull, and a considerable number were left over unsold. We quote at 5 to 6¾ gross, in a retail way, for common to prime fat mutton Sheep, and one drove of good Penna. Sheep is reported as having been retailed at from 5¾ to 6. Lambs in good supply and dull but unchanged, selling at $1,50 to $4 per head.

SWINE.

Market quiet and unchanged. In a retail way, quotations may be fairly given at 10½ to 11 cts, gross, for fair to good averages. Seattergood sold a drove of 35 head, averaging about 200 lbs, to Emerick & Co., at $9,50 per cwt.

REPORTED SALES OF CATTLE.

Lafferty & Glass sold 14 head of good stock cattle to Bedell at 6; 49 head to Berry at 6,45; retailed 51 head at 5½ to 7—19 head left over. P. Hartman retailed 21 head at 7,60 to 8,25.

Myers & Needy sold 20 head to Landers, averaging 900, at 6¼; 37 head same description of cattle to different parties at 6¼; 32 head of prime steers, averaging 1365, to Barney Grey at 8¼; 20 head stock cattle to Shamberg, averaging 900, at 5½, and retailed 85 head at 6½ to 8½.

Moonshine & Metz sold 16 head of prime steers to Barney Grey, averaging between 1300 and 1400 at 8¼; retailed 28 head at 8. Petrie sold Glass & Lafferty 12 head of stock steers, averaging 850, at 5¼.

Groenwald Kahn retailed 89 head at from 7 to 8⅜—sold Waldy & Gregg 5 head of extra Ohio heifers averaging about 1100, at 8¼. Kerwin & Co. sold for Dickson 20 head of common mixed stock at 6 to 6¾, and 5 head for Nave at 4 to 6¾.

Haziewood & Co. retailed 70 head of mixed cattle at 5½ to 8. Jas. Morgan 38 head at 6 to 8¼. Thorp sold Verner & Co. 18 head at 5¾. Cannon sold Rothchilds & Co. 18 head of fair-ish cattle, averaging 960, at 6¾.

J. Porter sold Lafferty & Co. 20 head bulls at 3¾. H. Porter retailed 12 head at 5½@6¾. Merrick & Dond 17 head at 6½@8¾.

Crouse & Haas retailed 40 head at 7 to 8. Rothchilds & Eckert 29 head at 6½ to 7¾. Verner & Co. retailed 18 head at 5¾@6¾. Marks & Trautman 102 head at 7 to 9.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, August 28, 1866.

The produce markets, generally considered, present no new features worthy of special notice. The arrivals of Grain have been fair for some time past, and with a fair local demand, prices are pretty well sustained. Flour is less active and scarcely so firm, though without quotable change. Provisions quiet but steady, with a fair jobbing demand, and the same remarks will apply to Groceries. Apples are a drug in this market, the supply being largely in excess of the demand. Where shipments are made from a distance, we doubt whether they will command enough to pay for cost of transportation and commissions.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged at $2,25 to $2,30 for Spring—sale of 1 car Indiana White at $2,70. Rye is quotable at 93 to 95 for Western. No movement in Barley. Sale of 1 car new crop Oats at 43; 3 cars mixed Shelled Corn at 75, and 100 bush do at 78.

FLOUR—The demand is falling off somewhat, and while the market is quiet and a little dull, prices remain unchanged. Small sales from store at $11@11,50 for Spring Wheat, and $12,50 to $13 for Winter. No change in Rye Flour or Cornmeal.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged at 17¼c@17¾c for Shoulders; 19¾c@20c for Ribbed Sides; 23 to 23¼ for Plain Hams, and 25 to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quiet and unchanged 22 to 22¾ for kettle. Small sales of Mess Pork at $33,50.

APPLES—Continue very dull, and the supply is largely in excess of the demand. Small sales in a retail way at $1,50 to $2,50 per bbl, as to quality.

BUTTER—There is an improved demand for packed, principally for shipment, and while the market is more active, prices remain unchanged at 25 to 30, according to quality.

CHEESE—Is in good supply, and a little dull but unchanged at 15 to 16 for Western Reserve; 16 to 17 for Hamburg, and 21 for Goshen.

EGGS—In good demand, and fresh packed sell on arrival at 20.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is coming in more freely, and the market is dull and drooping; small sales at $4,25 to $4,50. Flax Seed is wanted at $3—none offering. Cloverseed is nominal at $7 to $7,50.

SALT—Is unchanged and quoted at $2,60 to $2,65, on track, and $2,75 for small lots from store.

SORGHUM—Dull and nominal at 50 to 60.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, August 28, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for this article, and while the market is quiet and a little dull, there is no quotable change in prices. We can report sales of 200 bbls at 17; 220 do at 17¼; 55 at 17, and 50 at 16½. As we stated in our last report, the general impression seems to be that prices cannot reasonably be expected to appreciate any further; that in all probability, the present rates will not long be sustained, and that in the event of a a resumption of navigation—which is likely to occur at almost any time—and large arrivals, the market will break, and that, too, pretty badly. These, however, it is but proper to remark, are all surmises, though it must be confessed, that, to the impartial observer, the views therein embodied, seem reasonable, and will doubtless, sooner or later, be realized.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues quiet but steady, while prices are without quotable change. There is some inquiry for spot oil as well as for September, but there is little or none offering—in fact, our refiners, almost without an exception, have contracts for all the oil they can turn out during the time above indicated. Last evening there was a sale of 500 bbls at 39 cents, free on boars cars here. There were offers to buy this afternoon for Philadelphia delivery at the following quotations:

September	45@45½
October	46@
November	46½@

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported today were as follows:

Fisher & Bro	200	H. McKelvy	257
Jas. Wilkins	301	Baxter & Ellison	36
J. E. Strickler	340	J. Mawhinney	220

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, August 27.—The market on 'Change was firm for flour and grain, and prices unchanged. Sales of 140 bbls XX spring wheat flour, western brands, at $10. Wheat in good milling demand. Sales 2 cars No. 1 Milwaukee spring at $2,30; 1 car No. 2 red winter at $2,45; 1 car do do at $2,50; 2 cars No. 1 amber at $2,70; 1 car amber Missouri at $2,80; 1500 bu amber Michigan on private terms. Corn firm and unchanged; sales 5 cars No. 1 mixed at 70c; 1 car No. 2 do at 69c. Oats quiet and steady; sales 1 car No 1 new State at 37c; 2 cars do at 38c.

Philadelphia Seed Market.

PHILADELPHIA, August 27.—There is some inquiry for prime cloverseed, but the market is very bare of this description, and, if here, would command an advance. We quote at $6,50@6,75. Timothy is more abundant and ranges from $5 to $5,50 for common and prime. Flaxseed is wanted for crushing, and all that could be obtained was taken at $3,75 per bush.

$9,00. WHO CAN BEAT THIS? $9,00.

For Two Weeks Only.

I am selling a good FRENCH CALF SKIN BOOT of my own make, for the small sum of NINE DOLLARS, at No. 36 Market street.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly but steadily at this point, with about thirty two inches in the channel by the marks last evening. The weather continues cloudy and unsettled, with frequent showers of rain.

There has not been a solitary arrival or departure aside from the regular packets, since our last report, and business is almost wholly suspended at the main landing.

Capt. John W. Annwalt has returned to the city, after an absence of some five weeks, during which time he was sojourning with some friends and relatives at Mount Vernon, Ohio. Capt. A. is in excellent health and in first rate condition for the fall campaign.

Capt. Sam. Shuman was in the city yesterday. He reports "all quiet" at Brownsville in steamboat matters, though "politics" are getting pretty warm. Capt. Sam is of the opinion that "old" John Covode will succeed the Hon. John L. Dawson in the next Congress.

The Belle Vernon, Capt. Darragh's new boat is rapidly approaching completion. It is thought that steam will be raised on her in about two weeks.

The General Government is now prepared to receive, at New Orleans, proposals for deepening and maintaining a channel across the bar at the southwest pass. The money is ready for the contractor who undertakes and carries out the work. The contractors will be required to open a channel of the uniform depth of eighteen feet, and a width of two hundred feet, entirely through from deep water in the Gulf to deep water in the river. Lt. Col. M. D. M. Alester, U. S. A., has charge of the work.

The Louisville Courier says:

A great outcry was made in Cincinnati against the Ohio river water and its impurities, trying to impute the cholera in that city to the river water. Some intense greenhorns in this city also took up the cry, but hasn't hurt the beautiful river a bit. The pestilence originated in Cincinnati, and not in the river. It was in the atmosphere, the streets, alleys, cellers and houses, and not in the water. The same river sweeps down to Louisville, and is used by all Louisville, but it didn't give us the cholera. To be sure we have a pure atmosphere, and only tolerable clean streets, but good spring or "pump" water all over the city, though a large number of citizens prefer the river water and drink it in preference.

The St. Louis Democrat of Monday, says:

We are informed that a Mackinaw boat, one of those roomy barges used by Indians and voyagers generally, away up about the Rocky Mountains, arrived here yesterday morning, completing its voyage of some three thousand miles, from the wreck of the steamer Marion, and having as passengers the officers and crew of that steamer. We never, till now, knew of one of these crafts coming so far down, although it is not unusual to see them at St. Joseph, to which point they come from the mountains when the water is too low for steamboat navigation.

The Republican of the same date says: Capt Frank Burritt, of the Mollie McPike, has discovered that "Billy Goats" are sure antidote for cholera, and that it is impossible for both to exist in the same locality, and as a consequence thereof has secured one of the aforesaid goats, since which there has not been a single case of sickness on his boat.

Says Monday's Cincinnati Gazette:

Business on the landing for the past week has been moderately active, taking into consideration that it is the dull season, and that cholera, as an epidemic, had visited the city. All the boats that have attempted to load for the different ports have had but little trouble in picking up full cargoes, especially those for Memphis and New Orleans. A number of our shippers have been sending their freight by rail to Cairo, to be taken thence by boats to New Orleans, but owing to the scarcity of light draught boats in the Mississippi and the low water between Cairo and Memphis, freights at the former place have accumulated in large quantities, and will be detained at that port for some time before they can go forward. Shippers will find it greatly to their interest to ship by boats leaving this port direct, and thus avoid all delays. The rates to the different points still remain low, yet there appears to be no inclination on the part of steamboatmen to advance the price. The local packets are all, with but few exceptions, doing a fair amount of business for the season.

Portions of the Missouri's boilers have been recovered and landed on the wharf at Evansville. They show very clearly the terrible nature of the explosion. The rivets are not started or broken in a single instance, but the sheets of iron were torn into shreds like a sheet of paper or a pasteboard. The boilers were made of ⅜ iron.

The Messenger is being raised by the Underwriter, and when the Fort Smith passed her she was nearly ready to be towed to Cairo.

Steps have recently been taken to carry into effect the new law passed by the late Congress "further to provide for the safety of the lives of passengers on board of vessels propelled in whole or part by steam." Copies of this act have been forwarded to the revenue officers of the different ports, with directions to see to its immediate enforcement. By its provisions all pilots and engineers must be licensed, and ocean and river steamers are prohibited from carrying on their decks any cotton, hay, straw hemp, or other inflammable articles, unless securely covered with canvas. Barges carrying passengers, and towed by a steamboat are also required to have ample supply of fire buckets and life preservers, under penalty, in case of non-compliance, of a fine of one hundred dollars.

On Tuesday evening of last week an ordinance passed its second and final reading in the City Council of Memphis requiring steamboat runners to pay a yearly tax of $100, and to prove themselves good, honest, straightforward and upwright men.

The Stella (tow) arrived at Louisville from New Orleans Friday night, and was having her boilers patched on Saturday. She will proceed to Pittsburgh as soon as they are finished. She took down 16 barges.

THE NEW Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA, COMBINED WITH Iodide of Lime, PREPARED FOR G. W. PETTES, BOSTON, BY James R. Nichols & Co., MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS, MANUFACTURERS OF THE ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK WITH Protoxide of Iron, Which has become so favorably known as a Tonic and Restorative, By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME, presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather,

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

For sale in Pittsburgh by R. E. SELLERS & CO., AND ALL DRUGGISTS. my14:a7:MWF
